

FORMER AIRPORT BUILDINGS

1. Ticketing Hall (~7,000 sqm GFA, 2 storeys)

Paya Lebar Airport in 1964.
Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore Collection, courtesy of National Archives of Singapore

Source: Annual Report of the Department of Civil Aviation 1971

FORMER AIRPORT BUILDINGS

2. Terminal Building (~7,000 sqm GFA, 2 storeys)

Source: Annual Report of the Department of Civil Aviation 1971

The airport in the 1960s-80s. Collection of National Museum of Singapore

Aerial view of former airport buildings in 1950

Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore Collection, courtesy of National Archives of Singapore

FORMER AIRPORT BUILDINGS

2. Terminal Building (~7,000 sqm GFA, 2 storeys)

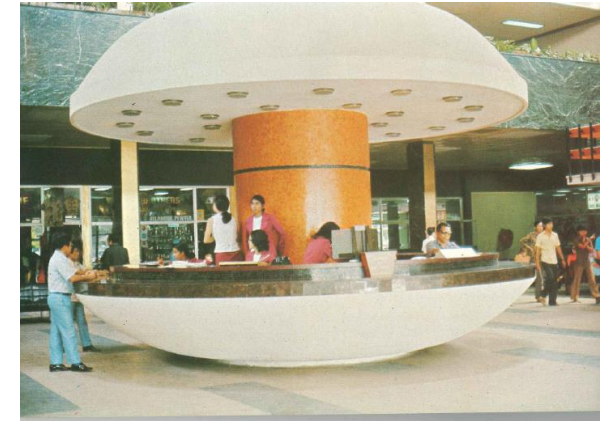

Interior view of Passenger Terminal building. The mosaic mural in the background, titled "Skyline of Singapore" by William P. Mundy, is one of the winning entries in a design competition held for the airport in 1963

Source: Singapore Year Book 1965

Source: Annual Report of the Department of Civil Aviation 1971

Main hall of the main terminal building showing mushroom-shaped information booth

Source: Annual Report of the Department of Civil Aviation 1971

Interior view of Transit Lounge 1964.

Ministry of Information and the Arts Collection, courtesy of National Archives of Singapore

FORMER AIRPORT BUILDINGS

3. Arrival Wing (~10,000 sqm GFA, 2 storeys)

Paya Lebar Airport, 1964.
Courtesy of National Archives of Singapore

Paya Lebar Airport with concorde in the foreground, 1970s.
Source: Annual Report of the Department of Civil Aviation 1974

FORMER AIRPORT BUILDINGS

4. Control Tower Building (~5,000 sqm GFA, 6 storeys)

Control Tower Building, 1961.

Source: Annual Report of the Department of Civil Aviation 1961

Source: Annual Report of the Department of Civil Aviation 1971

Control Tower Building, 1971.

Digital copy © National Library Board Singapore 2008. Original work © Chung Shui Ken